Southwest RESA

July 2017 Newsletter

TKES Training, July 18-19, 2017, 9:00-3:00

Southwest RESA will offer the required Teacher Keys Effectiveness Systems training for administrators seeking the initial training and credentialing.
The Teacher Keys Effectiveness System (TKES) consists of multiple components, including the Teacher Assessment on Performance Standards (TAPS), Surveys of Instructional Practice, and measures of Student Growth. The overarching goal of TKES is to support continuous growth and development of each teacher. Please register at www.swresa.org.

LKES Training, July 20, 2017, 9:00-3:00
Southwest RESA will offer the Leader Keys Effectiveness System (LKES) training on July 20, 2017. This common evaluation system that will allow the state to ensure consistency and comparability across districts, based on a common definition of leader effectiveness.
The Leader Keys Effectiveness System consists of four components which contribute to an overall Leader Effectiveness Measure (LEM): Leader Assessment on Performance Standards (LAPS), Student Growth, School Climate Survey, and Combination of Additional Data.
