

YOU ARE

able to participate in your county's elections without having to maintain the voter registration rolls, test the equipment, train the poll workers or set up the voting site because that's why we're HERE!

DID YOU KNOW?

- General election voting day is always the first Tuesday in November.
- Georgia had 6,036,491 registered voters as of November 2014.
- About 25% of Georgia's residents can't vote: they're under age 18.
- Counties manage in-person and absentee voting for the State.
