

HB 2108 college course credit; dual enrollment (Udall)

- Requires a governing board to award one Carnegie unit, rather than one half of one unit, for each three semester hours of credit a student earns through dual enrollment at a community college or university
- Expands eligibility for dual enrollment courses to freshmen and sophomores
- Removes the process currently in place for community colleges to waive class status requirements in order to admit freshmen and sophomores