

SB 1030 emergency response plans; executive session (Carter)

- Allows a governing board or governing body to discuss or consider an emergency response plan in executive session.
- Exempts school district or charter school emergency response plans from statutory requirements relating to the inspection of public records.