

SB 1042 executive sessions; security plans (Borrelli)

- Includes the discussion or consultation of security plans, procedures, assessments, measures or information technology systems related to or having an impact on the security or safety of buildings or facilities in an executive session.
- Specifies that records, documentation, notes or other materials made by or provided to designated representatives in executive sessions are confidential and exempt from the public
 - Defines information technology as all computerized and auxiliary automated information processing, telecommunications and related technology, including hardware, software, vendor support and related services, equipment and projects.