A Day in the Woods:
Forest & Wildlife Activities for All the Family
Gaskins Forest Education Center
3359 Moore Sawmill Rd., Alapaha
9 am to 3 pm, April 18, 2015

FREE - no entrance fee and no commercial activities.

Local people will share their craftsmanship and knowledge of local traditions.

Activities will be ongoing, so you can come and go at your leisure.

Samples of game meat—hog and deer, and maybe other game.

Volunteer: lead an activity, provide game, side dishes or refreshments, help as volunteer, or provide support in public relations.

Our ideas for possible activities and demonstrations. We already have people doing the boldface activities; the other activities listed are addition suggestions. It is OK for more than one person/group to do similar activities.

- Splitting shingles
- Making bark baskets
- Wood turning
- Wood carving/wantling
- Spinning and dying
- Painting
- Photography
- Pine needle baskets
- Portable sawmill
- Fire behavior
- Measuring trees
- Recognizing invasive plants
- Wetland delineation
- Gopher tortoise camera
- Reptiles & amphibians
- Aging deer jaws & photos
- Taxidermy
- Trapping
- Archery bows
- Indian Artifacts/ Knapping
- History
- Building log buildings
- Beekeeping
- Pond critters
- Soils
- Geocaching/orienteering

Activities for Adults
- Hay wagon ride
- Independent nature walks
- Guided nature walks
- * Wildlife habitat
- * Birding
- * Natural communities

Activities for Children
- Pine cone bird feeder
- Make a bee nest
- Leaf scavenger hunt
- Animal footprints

We hope this will be a community event. Anyone interested in contributing should contact Heather Brasell 229-339-3966 or email heather.brasell@gmail.com.

Co-organizers: Karla Gaskins, Dona Fields, Ellen Corrie, Sue Patton, Mark Dixon