Acronym Manía: RTI, PBS, CRCT, and Oh, Me!

Purpose:
To Demonstrate Service Learning as a Research-based Best Practice for School Improvement and Dropout Prevention

Program Description:
With so much emphasis on standards, testing, and intervention strategies, is it possible for learning to still be enjoyable and effective?

During this workshop participants will learn how to incorporate service learning as a research-based best practice for school improvement and dropout prevention. Examples for elementary, middle and high school will be used to show how to implement project-based learning at all levels. Service learning grants, opportunities for awards, and the new state Cord of Excellence program for high school graduates will also be highlighted.
