JOHN P. IMLAY, JR.
Chairman, Imlay Investments, Inc. and
The Imlay Foundation

GOLDEN RULE AWARD

John P. Imlay, Jr. is Chairman of Imlay Investments, Inc., a private investment firm which manages capital and provides venture funds for small technology companies. He is also Chairman of The Imlay Foundation, a family foundation formed in 1989.

Imlay is the retired Chairman and CEO of Management Science America, Inc., among the top ten software companies in the world with 60 offices worldwide and over 12,000 customers. It was purchased by The Dun & Bradstreet Corp in 1989 and he remained as Chairman until he retired in 1996.

Upon selling the company, Imlay formed Imlay Investments and The Imlay Foundation. He is a minority owner of the Atlanta Falcons.

A Georgia Tech grad, Imlay received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Mercer University. In 1994 he was inducted into the Technology Hall of Fame for Georgia and in 1997 received the Entrepreneur of the Year Lifetime Achievement Award.

Imlay is author of the management book, Jungle Rules. He and his wife, Mary Ellen, reside in Atlanta.
