AARON BERGER,

"A History of Rich's"

The Breman Museum is the third museum in Georgia that Aaron has led during his nearly 20 years in the arts and culture arena. The first two included the Marietta/Cobb Museum of Art followed by the Albany Museum of Art. Prior to joining the Breman, Berger worked with Alexander Haas and Turning Point to provide fundraising and management counsel to museum and cultural venues nationwide.

Among his accomplishments, Berger is credited with;

- helping the Albany Museum of Art earn "Institution of the Year" by the Georgia Association of Museums and Galleries, where he doubled the museum's annual attendance and membership,
- attending the prestigious Museum Leadership Institute, organized by the Getty Center in Los Angeles,
- earning recognition from the Georgia State Senate for his work with the Albany Museum of Art, and e
- establishing a juried art exhibition of regional artists currently in its 13th year .

Berger has an undergraduate degree in Art History from the College of Charleston and earned his MBA from South University in Savannah. He has been with the Breman Museum since January 2012 and lives in Sandy Springs.
