

Learning Outcomes: Participants will.....

1

Determine the elements of a text that constitute complexity

2

Learn how to assess the qualitative and quantitative features of a text

3

Discover the importance of reader and task considerations in the selection of complex text

4

Explore a variety of teacher-led, peer-led, and independent tasks that focus on teaching complex text and guiding students' learning from those texts.

5

Learn how to gradually release responsibility to students and help them become independent readers.

TEXT COMPLEXITY: SELECTING & TEACHING
COMPLEX TEXTS
ACROSS DISCIPLINES

Oconee RESA
September 8, 2022
9:00-2:30

Contact: Paulene Roberson
paulene.roberson@oconeeresasa.org