Training made possible thanks to:

THE ARTHUR M. BLANK
FAMILY FOUNDATION

This full-day training will provide you with all the tools you need to bring the Medal of Honor Character Development Program into your classroom. This flexible, cross-curricular resource, which uses the oral histories of Medal of Honor recipients, focuses on how students can use these examples of courage, commitment, sacrifice, integrity, citizenship and patriotism to influence change in their own communities.

There is no cost for attendance, and your school can be reimbursed for the cost of a substitute teacher. Middle and high school teachers from all subject areas along with counselors, coaches, and administrators are invited to attend.

TEACHERS ATTENDING THIS EVENT WILL

- Receive the full curriculum kit at no cost
- Participate in model lessons
- Enjoy a complimentary breakfast and lunch
- Learn best practices for their classrooms
- Receive six hours of continuing education credit

TEACHER FEEDBACK

"This is one of the best workshops I've ever been to."

"I have finally been provided with the best character education curriculum."

"The material engages students and extends discussions beyond the classroom."
