I plan on attending the DRE Intensive Expert Testimony Seminar on March 17, 2022.

Focusing on the unique challenges for prosecutors and police in the ever-growing number of drug-impaired driver cases. A qualified panel of expert instructors with decades of experience will engage you with current and practical instruction for prosecuting the drugged driver from investigation to trial.

CLE: This course is approved for 12 CLE credits. A continental breakfast and light afternoon refreshments will be provided with lunch on your own to explore the city.

Accommodations: A block of rooms is reserved at the Sheraton Pittsburgh Hotel at Station Square. Please contact the hotel directly at 412-261-2000 to reserve your room at the rate of $124.00 plus state and local taxes. Be sure to mention the Prosecuting the Drugged Driver conference to get the group rate.

Registration: Click here to register online or complete and return the attached form with payment to the Pennsylvania District Attorneys Institute, no later than February 4, 2022.

Cancellations: No refunds will be issued for cancellations received after February 25, 2022. Substitutions are permitted at anytime.

Bonus Training: The PA DUI Association is offering additional practical training for prosecutors and DRE's on March 17, 2022 at the Allegheny Courthouse. Prosecutors are encouraged to join DRE's for this Intensive Expert Testimony Seminar. Please contact David Andrascik (paduiman@padui.org) for more information.
