22nd Annual Duke Debates: Controversies in the Management of Patients with Hematologic Malignancies

April 29 - May 1, 2022
At the Omni Grove Park Inn
210 Macon Avenue, Asheville, NC 28804

Learning outcomes:
- Examine the decision-making strategies considered in the management of multiple myeloma including choosing the optimal induction regimen, the role of immunotherapy and the management of refractory disease.
- Discuss the role and economics of CAR-T in the cancer population
- Compare traditional and emerging treatment options in the management of hematologic malignancies.
- Examine the use of immunotherapy in the management of solid tumors.
- Discuss emerging data and recent advances in the management of both malignant and non-malignant disease
- Examine the role and economics of CAR-T in the cancer population
- Describe emerging data and recent advances in the management of both malignant and non-malignant disease

Target audience:
Medical oncologists, hematologists, radiation oncologists, surgical oncologists, pharmacists, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, fellows, nurses, and other health care professionals interested in the treatment of patients with hematologic malignancies.

Hotel Reservations:
Duke Grove Park Inn | 290 Macon Avenue, Asheville, NC 28804
Hotel reservations: 1-800-843-6664 ref: Duke Debates 2022

Cancellation Policy:
Registration deadline: May 20, 2022. This registration fee will not be refunded if canceled after April 22, 2022.

*Includes industry nurses, pharmacists and doctors
Registration Opens
Registration and Breakfast
Registration and Breakfast

Numbers:

Universal Activity Designates this activity for up to 12 ACPE credit hours. Universal Activity Designates this activity for up to 12 credit hours for nurses. Nurses should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in this activity.

Credit Statement

Physicians: Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development designates this live activity for a maximum of 12 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Nurses: Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development designates this activity for up to 12 CE contact hours for nurses. Nurses should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Pharmacists: Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development designates this activity for up to 12 ACPE credit hours.

Special Needs Statement

The Duke Cancer Network is committed to making its activities accessible to all individuals. If you are in need of an accommodation, please do not hesitate to call and/or submit a description of your needs in writing in order to receive service.

Contact/Questions
For questions, special needs, or sponsorship, please contact:
Beth Tesser, Duke Cancer Network
3108 Tower Blvd, Ste. 600, Durham, NC 27710
919-668-3863 | Beth.Tesser@dukehealth.org

Note:

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Joint Accreditation Statement
In support of improving the quality of health care, the Duke University Health System Department of Clinical Education and Professional Development is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Successful completion of this activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12 MOC Part 2 points (part 2 point credit MOCA credit) in the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOCA points equivalent to the amount of credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.